

The Daily Courant.

Thursday, September 9. 1714.

Petersburg, August 9.

P RINCE Menzikoff having about the Beginning of the Month of June last, sent Order to Collonel Schubajoff, Governour of Wiburg in Finland, to march with a Detachment of 1000 Men of his Garrison, and with a sufficient Train of Artillery, to attack the capital Fortrefs of the Province of Savolaxia called Nyslot. The said Governour, in Obedience to this Order, appeared before the said Place the 8th of June, and took post on a little Island named Malm, whence he drove the Swedes who had lodged themselves there to dispute his Passage. Then he caused Batteries to be raised at proper Places, and the 20th they began to fire upon the Works. The 28th a sufficient Breach being made, the Swedish Governour was summoned: He, considering that he had a Retreat to a fortified Castle, and that the approach to the Town was defended by a rapid Stream which runs close by the Walls, would not hearken at first to any Capitulation. But when he saw that our Men had got ready Floats of Timber for passing the Water, and that they appeared determined to make the Assault whatever it might cost them, he bethought himself that if the Place were carried by Storm, the Destruction of the Garrison and Inhabitants would ensue; he consented at length to a Capitulation, pursuant to which he surrendered the Place to the Russians the 29th. The Swedish Garrison consisted of the Governour Major Busch, 3 Captains, 3 Lieutenants, 2 Ensigns, 13 inferior Officers, and 400 Soldiers: In the Place were found 6 Brass Cannon, 25 of Iron, 10 Barrils of Powder, 713 Bullets, 228 Cartridges, and other Stores in Proportion. By the taking of this Place, the Swedes have lost all Finland, of which the Province of Savolaxia was Part.

From the Amst. Gazette, dated Sept. 11.

Vienna, Aug. 29. As soon as the Emperour had received the News of the Death of the Queen of Great-Britain, he caused Prince Eugene to be called to him, after which the Prince had a Conference with the Minister of Hanover. His Imperial Majesty has since assisted at divers secret Councils, which have been held on Occasion of the Alteration that has happened in England; and we begin to talk of making a new Alliance with that Crown, the Secret of which Negotiation will be committed to Prince Eugene, who set out this Morning for Baden. The Minister of Parma has been forbidden the Court, and the Letters directed to the Emperour and Empress his Mother, notifying the Marriage of the Princess of Parma with King Philip, were at the same time given back to him unopened.

The Court is said to have certain Advice, that by the Contract of Marriage between King Philip and the Princess Elizabeth 'tis expressly stipulated, that the Succession of the Dutchies of Parma and Piacenza shall devolve on her or her Issue Male or Female, in case the Male Line should come to be extinguished; and that her Marriage-Dowry is 400000 Ducats. The Protestants in Hungary, who have had 18 Churches taken from them, flatter themselves now more than ever that they shall obtain Satisfaction on their Grievances. The King of Great-Britain has caused Instances to be made to the Emperour, that due Regard may be had to the Demands of the Ministers of the Protestant Princes at Baden. The 26th Baron Huldeberg, Envoy of Brunswick-Lunenbourg, notified to their Imperial Majesty's the Accession of the Elector his Master to the Crown of Great-Britain; he made the like Notification to the Empress-Mother the 27th, to the Empress-Dowager the 28th, and to the Arch-Duchesses Daughters of the Emperour Leopold the 29th.

From the Amst. Courant, dated Sept. 11. &c.

Hanover, Sept. 7. The young Prince Frederick has been indisposed, but is perfectly recovered: He is to remain here with his Uncle Duke Ernestus; but the Princess Royal, with the Princesses her Daughters, will in a short time go for England. The Inhabitants of this City, and of all the Country, shew very great Concern and unfeigned Grief for the Departure of their Sovereign, under whose just and mild Government they had so long enjoyed Tranquillity and Happiness.

Hague, Sept. 11. Prince Kurakin, Ambassador of the Czar of Muscovy, was in Conference last Saturday with the Deputies of the States, who made new Instances to him for the Re-imbursement of the Persons interested in five Dutch Ships which the Russians burnt last Year among the Swedish Vessels at Helsingfors. The Design of holding at Cologne the Conferences for settling the Barrier with the Emperour, is changed, and now Antwerp is pitched upon for the Place of negotiating that Affair: The Count de Konigseck will be at Antwerp this Week; but the States Deputies will not be going thither, till after the Departure of the King of Great-Britain from hence.

Hague, Sept. 14. The King of Great-Britain is expected here the 16th; in the mean while all the Discourse is about the Reception and Entertainment designed to be given his Majesty here. The general Attention is so much turned to this, that there is nothing else at present to be advised from hence.

London,

London, September 9.

Yesterday South-Sea Stock was 96 one half, 96 five eights, 96 three eights to 96 one half. Bank 133 one quarter to 133 one half. India 135 one half. African 33. New Lottery Tickets 13s. to 14s. Advance.

Dutch Lottery Tickets at the best Hand,

Indorsed by good Merchants, are Sold by Joseph Oake, Exchange Broker, at his Office in King-street near Cheap-side, London, and at his House in Three-King-Court over-against George-yard in Lombard-street; where Persons may enter the Numbers of their Tickets, and have a certain Account sent them on the Arrival of every Dutch Post, what Prizes they have, by a Messenger to those who live in Town, and by the first Post to all Parts of Great-Britain. This Lottery will certainly begin Drawing the 20th of this Instant September our Stile; and that Persons may not be long out of their Money, the said Joseph Oake proposes to pay the Prizes here in London, he having by Contract with several Merchants and others provided a sufficient Sum for that Purpose. N.B. The said Joseph Oake is preparing a compleat Set of Numerical-Tables and Register-Books for the Accommodation of all Persons concerned in the English Lottery. An exact Scheme of the Dutch Lottery, shewing how many Prizes there is of each Sort, with their Value in English Money, may be had at the Places aforesaid.

Whereas by the sudden Death of Mr. John Sheppard late of Aldersgate-street, London, Merchant, several Tallies, Notes, &c. have been imbezzled or mislaid: Whoever can give Information of any such his Eff. &c. so as they may be recovered, to Mr. William Sheppard of Staple Inn, or Mr. John Jackson, Jun. in Friday-street, shall receive as a Reward 20 l. per Cent for any Sum they shall so discover.

Stolen from Rochford's Chocolate-House at Charing-Cross, on Tuesday the 7th Instant, between 9 and 10 of the Clock in the Morning, Twelve Silver Forks, eight large Silver spoons, one Silver Salt, three Silver Punch-Ladles, with Ebony Handles broke of, all mark'd (except two of the Ladles) with a Griffin-Head. Left by the Person that Stole the Plate, three Diaper Napkins mark'd with an R, and a Table-Cloth mark'd with a P. Whoever can discover the Person, or will bring all the said Plate again, to the said Chocolate-House, shall receive Five Pounds Reward, or proportionable for any Part of it, or if pawn'd your Money again. N.B. You are desired to stop the Person or Plate, if offer'd to Sale or Pawn.

The Beef-Steak-House in Nag's-Head-Court, Bartholomew-lane, is to be Lett, the Person that keeps it is going into other Business. Inquire at the said House.

In the Great-Piazza in Covent Garden,

The House that Sir Godfrey Kneller formerly lived in, is to be Lett, all or part, and furnished or unfurnished. Note. There is one Room in it about 43 Foot long, by 20 Foot broad, and 12 Foot high. Also a large stable, with a Coach-house into Hart-street; and a large Garden about 135 Foot long, and 40 Foot broad, to be Lett with the House, or by it self, with a free Passage into the Piazza, if required. Inquire at Mr. Healman's, Upholder, in the said Piazza.

To be Lett,

A very good House in Fenchurch-street, at the Corner turning into Lime-street, and known by the Sign of the Black Swan, very fit for a Wholesale Grocer, or any other Wholesale Trade, and now in the Occupation of Mr. Chapman and Mr. Jeffon Grocers. Inquire at Mr. Robinson's, an Attorney, in Aldersgate-street.

Places in a large Convenient Balcony, with the Use of a Dining-Room, to be Lett at the Bell against the Bank of England in the Postery, for the Day of the King's publick Entry.

A large Balcony and Room, between Shoe-lane and Water-lane, in Fleet-street, to be Lett at a Reasonable Rate, for that Day the King makes his Entry. Inquire at Steward's Coffee-house in Bolt Court over-against Water-lane in Fleet-street.

To be Lett for the Day the King makes his publick Entry, an empty House, with a good Balcony, (either the whole or single Places) at the North-End of London-bridge, over-against St. Marston Church, which has a full Prospect up Fifth Street-Hill and on most part of London-bridge. Inquire next Door to the said House. Note. The said House does not stand on the Bridge, there being a very convenient Back-Door to come in free from the Crowd.

To be Lett in Cloak-lane near Dowgate, a Convenient House, with Warehouses, Coach-house, and Stable. Inquire of Mr. William Riffe in Bell-Court in Mincing-lane.

The Golden-Lyon in Cheap-side by Mercer's-Chapel, an empty House, is commodiously fitted with Benches for Gentlemen and Ladies who are minded to see His Majesty's Royal Entry through the City. N.B. The Balcony and Dining-Room will be Lett either entire or in single Places. Inquire at the Anchor in Friday-street near Cheap-side.

Champaigne Wine, neat, strong, true flavour'd, and of the best growth, bottled in France, the like not in Town, is to be sold in a Vault in Catherine-wheel-Yard near the Thatched-House in St. James's-street, at 3s. 6d. per Bottle; where constant Attendance is given from 10 to 12 in the Morning, and from 2 to 6 at Night. Any Gentleman may have from one Dozen Bottles to what Quantity he pleases.

For SALE by the CANDLE.

At the Marine Coffee-house in Birch-in-lane, this Day the 9th Instant, viz. A large Parcel of Black Broad-Cloth, Black-Shallows, Exeter Long Silks, Camblers, Russells, Worsted Stuffs, Black and White Silk Crapes, Silk Handkerchiefs, Worsted Stockings, Fine Mullins, Hollands, Garls, Doublets, Russias and German Linens, Silk-Cloths, Linings, Fine Tapestries and Carpets, a Silk Damask Bed, Fine Suits, &c. The Goods to be sold till the time of sale at the Warehouse in Merchant Taylor's-Hall in Threadneedle-street. Where Merchants, Traders, Manufacturers, and others, may find their Goods to be sold by Sale at the Candle by Matthias Mellish. All good Bills discounted, and Money advanced for Customs, or on any other Goods to be sold at his Sale.

Just published, Clark's new Copy-Book, Entitled, Writing improved; or, Penmanship made easy, in its useful and ornamental Parts; with various Examples of all the Hands now practiced in Great-Britain; shewing in 32 large Folio Plates all the Mannerly and Clerk-like variety of Penmanship that is necessary (without the Modern Fooleries and trifling Inventions) to qualify any Person, either to Teach or Practice the Art in any Way of Business: To which is prefixed an Introduction to the Art of Writing, containing the most practical Rules and Proportions, with several Observations (not yet taken notice of in Publick, by any of the Ancient or Modern Masters,) which are absolutely necessary to be known by all who desire to attain to any degree of Perfection in the Art of Writing. Sold by the Author John Clark, Writing-Master and Accomptant, at the Hand and Pen in Warwick-lane, (with whom young Gentlemen may Board.) Price 5s.

For SALE by the CANDLE.

To Morrow the 10th Instant, at Lloyd's Coffee-house in Lombard-street, at 5 a-Clock in the Afternoon, (only one Nocturnal of Claret in a Lot) viz. 49 Bourdeaux Nocturnals of excellent Old French Claret, Obion and Margaux, (of the Year 1712,) deep, bright, strong, fresh, and of the true Flavour, perfect fine, and fit for bottling, next, an entire parcel, in a Vault in Lime-street near the Passage from Milliter-Square, against the Back Gate of the East-India-House, in Lime-street. To be seen and tasted this Day, from 8 to 1, and from 2 to 6, and all Day to Morrow, (as above) till the time of Sale. To be sold by Tho. Tomkins, Broker, in Seething-lane in Tower-street.

Russia Linnen and Diaper, Hollands, Mullins, and 200 fine Flanders Ticks, with 47 Bags of Cowries in sum, will be sold at Garraway's Coffee-house, to Morrow the 10th Instant, at 3 a-Clock in the Afternoon, which may be seen at the publick Sale-Warehouse upon the Royal-Exchange till that time.

Excellent good Chest Florence Wine, of the last Vintage, to be sold at Reasonable Rates, at a Cellar under the House of Mr. Peter Longueville in Sicelane near Buckler's-Bury. To Morrow will be publish'd the 2d Edition (with the Addition of an Appendix) of, Memoirs concerning the Affairs of Scotland, from Queen Anne's Accession to the Throne, to the Commencement of the Union of the two Kingdoms of Scotland and England, in May 1707. With an Account of the Original and Progress of the designed Invasion from France, in March, 1708. And some short Reflections on the Antient State of Scotland. To which is prefixed, an Introduction, shewing the Reasons of publishing the said Memoirs at this juncture. Printed for J. Baker, at the Black Boy in Pater-Noster-Row. Price 5s.

This Day is Published,

The Funeral Elogy and Character of her Royal Highness, the late Princess Sophia: With the Explication of her Consecration-Medal. Written Originally in Latin, translated into English, and further illustrated. By Mr. Toland. Who has added the Character of the King, the Prince, and the Princess. Printed for Bernard Lintott, at the Cross-Kays, between the two Temple-Gates in Fleet-street.

Ein Vollkommener Englischer Wagweiser fur Hoch-Teutliche. Welcher in sich begreift, I. Eine Neue Anleitung die Englische Sprache zu lernen. II. Ein wohlauferlesenes Worterbuch. III. Gemeine Redens-Arten. IV. Gemeine Gesprache. V. Eine Zusammenfassung vieler Anglizismen. VI. Ein London-Wegweiser, worinnen alle Curiositäten, so in dieser Stadt zu sehen sind, in etlichen Discursen vorgestellt werden. VII. Etliche auferlesene und Gemeine Briefe. Durch Johann Konig, Englischen Sprach-Meister in London. Pr. 2s. Methode Abbregee pour Apprendre l'Anglois. Par P. Scur Guy Mige. Pr. 2s. Sold by W. Freeman at the Bible against the Middle-Temple-Gate in Fleetstreet.

Just published, in a neat Pocket Volume, and fine Paper,

Vectigalium Systema; or, a compleat View of that Part of the Revenue of Great-Britain, commonly called Customs. Wherein, 1. The several Branches of that Revenue are distinctly treated of and explained by Examples. 2. The Manner and Methode of computing, both at the Custom-Houses and at the Water-Side are demonstrated, with Rules, Directions, and variety of Tables, for the more certain and expeditious Operations. 3. The Rates of all Merchandises inwards, and the Tree Duties to be paid or secured at Importation or Drawback on Exportation in Time, on all Goods whatsoever, both rated and un-rated, are exactly and carefully calculated, with References respectively, for working and proving them, and likewise the Rates and Duties payable Outwards and Coastwise. 4. The Laws relative to the Customs, Navigation and Trade, are abstracted under proper Heads in Alphabetical Order, with the Lists of Goods prohibited to be Imported or Exported, and of the legal Ports, Members and Creeks in Great Britain, a Table of Wees, and several other useful Tables. The whole digested in a plain and easy Method for the Benefit of the Officers of the Customs, and of all concerned in Trade. By Will. Edgar, Inspector-General of the Ports in North-Britain. Printed by John Baskett, Printer to the King's most excellent Majesty, and sold by Andrew Bell at the Bible and Cross-Kays in Cornhill, Sam. Clark in Birch-in-lane, and Tho. Varnam and John Osborn at the Oxford-Arms in Lombard Street. Price bound in Calfs 6s.

Excellent Drops for the King's Evil, which certainly cure that Distemper in Old or Young, though never so bad, causing all Sores or Ulcers in any Part of the Body to heal speedily, and all Swellings of the Glandules or Kernels to vanish in a short time; they act specifically and without trouble, being pleasant to take, and having no sensible Operation unless a little by Urine, but by rectifying and strengthening the Stomach and Bowels, intimately mixing with the Blood and Juices, attenuating all stagnating Viscidities, correcting all sharp Salts, penetrating the utmost recesses of the Body, opening all Obstructions of the Glandules, and by enabling them to perform their true Office, they absolutely cure the Evil in all its most direful Circumstances, after most other Methods and Means have proved ineffectual, and that in so short a time, that did not very large Experience in private Practice confirm the truth of it, one could not believe it possible. To be had only at the March with Blue-Spikes near the Square in Heydon-Yard in the Minories, at 2s. 6d. a Bottle, with Directions.